Last Sunday, we saw Jesus healing the deaf man, and acclaimed by all the people: "He has done all things well" (Mark 7:37). This week, we catch a glimpse of the cross.

Questions for the Ride
Home:

- What is Jesus teaching about suffering in today's Gospel?
- How is today's psalm related to Jesus' teaching about suffering?
- In what ways does death lead to life?

The First LifeTeen Mass is Sunday, Sept. 20th at 5:00P. LifeTeen/Edge Classes to follow Mass in the Hall.

RE 1st -5th Grade Kick Off with a family potluck, Wednesday, September 23rd at 5:30 pm in the Hall. ACTS and their families and all interested parties for RCIA are also welcome and invited to this potluck. Come see what is happening in our Parish Community!

The ACTS Youth Group is selling tickets for the annual Spaghetti Dinner on 9/26. Proceeds help to fund their activities.

The Knight of the Month for September is Kris Lukas. He is very active in the Knights. If something needs done, he is there to help get it done. Kris is a blessing to our council.

The September family of the month is Kris and Sherry Lukas and their 4 children. They are very helpful. Sherry is helpful with the youth in our parish and the whole family helps with fund raisers. Kristopher is an altar server. We are blessed to have such a beautiful family in our parish.

THE FISH PROGRAM IS COMING OCT. 1 AND 2. LET'S FILL UP THE FOOD CUPBOARD!

REGISTRATION FOR ALL RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, LIFETEEN/EDGE AND RCIA IS HAPPENING NOW. CALL THE OFFICE.

Have you retired, or are you planning on retirement this year? Some of us have, and some of us are, and we plan to celebrate this event at the Hospitality Hour on Sunday, September 20th. Call Linda @ 360-425-6194, or email at waterman.linda@gmail.com If you are interested in this event.

Because of the ever changing schedule for Fr. Straz, there will be times when the Daily Mass Schedule will change. The weekend announcements will include the Daily Mass schedule for the week. If there are any changes after Sunday, they will be posted on the bulletin board outside the chapel door.

The Knights of Columbus will be holding the Hamburger

Feeds on September 11th, 18 and October 9, 16, and 30th at 5:00 p.m. in the Hall. Hamburgers, Hotdogs, Chicken Burgers, baked beans, potato salad, chips and a brownie and soda. Free Parking for patrons. Enjoy the game with a good meal under your belt.

Clergy Dinner Tickets are on sale now. Dinner is Oct. 2nd at St. Rose in Longview. Contact Gary Troske . You may want to hurry, they go fast.
